

COPYING FOR CLASSROOM DISTRIBUTION AND COURSE PACKS

College of the Rockies

Once you have determined that your copying is covered under the Access Copyright/ACCC Model Licence, the ACCC Fair Dealing Policy, Educational Use of the Internet legislation, a Creative Commons licence or is your original work then please adhere to the following guidelines and procedures.

Classroom Distribution

- A. Make your master copy. One page of your copy must bear a complete bibliographic citation of the source publication. (include title, author/editor, publisher, date of publication, page numbers of copy, and total number of pages in the publication and ISBN/ISSN number) If source is the Internet, as much information to identify the item as possible (URL, name of website, title of document, author, date retrieved).
- B. Bring the copy to Sue Morin, in the Library. She will need to know which course you are making the copies for and how many copies will be made. Your copy will be recorded in the Copyright Log and stamped with a Copyright stamp.
- C. A Fame ticket will be initiated by Sue for your copying, so she will also require your 2-digit copy code.

Course packs

- A. Make the master copy of your course pack. One page of each of the copies included in the course pack must bear a complete bibliographic citation of the source publication. (include title, author/editor, publisher, date of publication, page numbers of copy, and total number of pages in the publication and ISBN/ISSN number) If source is the Internet, as much information to identify the item as possible (URL, name of website, title of document, author, date retrieved).
- B. Bring the master copy to Sue Morin, in the Library. She will need to know which course the course pack is for and how many copies will be made for sale in the Bookstore. Your Coursepack will be recorded in the Copyright Log, stamped with a Copyright stamp and forwarded to the Bookstore and the Production Support Centre for copying, packaging, pricing and sale.
- C. If you require instructor copies of the course pack, please provide your cost centre code for photocopying.
